

Welland Public Library
Rules of Conduct Policy

Date of Last Revision: February 27, 2017

The Welland Public Library is committed to providing a safe and welcoming environment for all visitors and staff. To ensure a positive and enjoyable Library experience for all, cooperation from all visitors in upholding the standards as outlined in this policy is requested. If behaviors that contravene the following guidelines are observed, staff should be informed promptly so that the appropriate action can be taken. For specific information regarding the progressive disciplinary process for Library visitors, please refer to policy AD-3-3.4.

This policy applies to visitors of all ages, and is in effect at all Welland Public Library locations, including temporary or mobile workspaces within the community.

To ensure a happy, healthy and safe environment for everyone, please:

1. Abide by all applicable, federal and provincial legislation, municipal by-laws and Library policies and procedures at all times.
2. Keep unnecessary noise and disruption to a minimum to maintain the Library as a comfortable place to read, study and work.
3. Respect Library materials, Library property and shared facilities, as well as the personal property of visitors and employees.
4. Converse with staff and other visitors in a polite and respectful manner. Harassment and acts of violence will not be tolerated.
5. Formally check out any materials that you wish to borrow. All suspected thefts will be investigated and are subject to prosecution.
6. Make available all bags for inspection if requested by a Library staff member.
7. Ensure that individuals in your care are appropriately supervised.
8. Leave pets at home unless they are certified service animals or are authorized to participate in a Library event or program.
9. Dress appropriately for a public environment, including a shirt and footwear.
10. Avoid wearing scented products.

Thank you for not:

1. Entering designated “employee only” areas without authorization.

2. Consuming alcohol or using illicit drugs or tobacco products (including e-cigarettes) in the Library.
3. Bringing unlidded drinks or fragrant food into the Library.
4. Promoting religious doctrine, political positions or conducting business on Library property.
5. Posting promotional material on the Library bulletin board. Please leave materials with Library staff as all flyers, posters and brochures are subject to the approval of the Art & Signage Committee.
